

LANDLORDING 101

Effective Property Management Through Forms

Norton Cabell, Instructor

Help minimize the frustration and improve profitability of property management with this seminar. From application through termination, all the essentials of property management are covered through a framework of court-tested forms geared for Oregon law.

This class is an excellent training foundation for beginners and serves as an exceptional review of current laws and management for experienced landlords. From advertising your vacant unit through problems during occupancy to ending the tenancy this class will help with step-by-step information.

Taught by Norton Cabell - Principal, Cabell Enterprises - Legislative Director for the Oregon Rental Housing Association.
